

1. Request a page from swap
2. Resend the request to the source server
3. Find the page on the source server
4. Transfer the page to the destination server
5. Load the page to memory